

LUXWING

YOUR WORLD. EVERYWHERE.

LuxWing's bespoke interior design is as flexible as you can imagine, providing tailored solutions for VVIP – from the Richest of the Rich to Heads of State.

Top of the World

Tailored to your high altitude living

With far more stability, range and interior space than offered by small business jets, LuxWing's wide-body aircraft are customized and outfitted to meet your specific style, needs and desires. Thanks to our meticulous personalized design, you can fly your lifestyle anywhere around the globe.

None of our designs are generic or based on off-the-shelf products – we can soar with your imagination, as well as provide solutions for VIP, corporate or official use.

Bespoke living room with all the comfort & style of home.

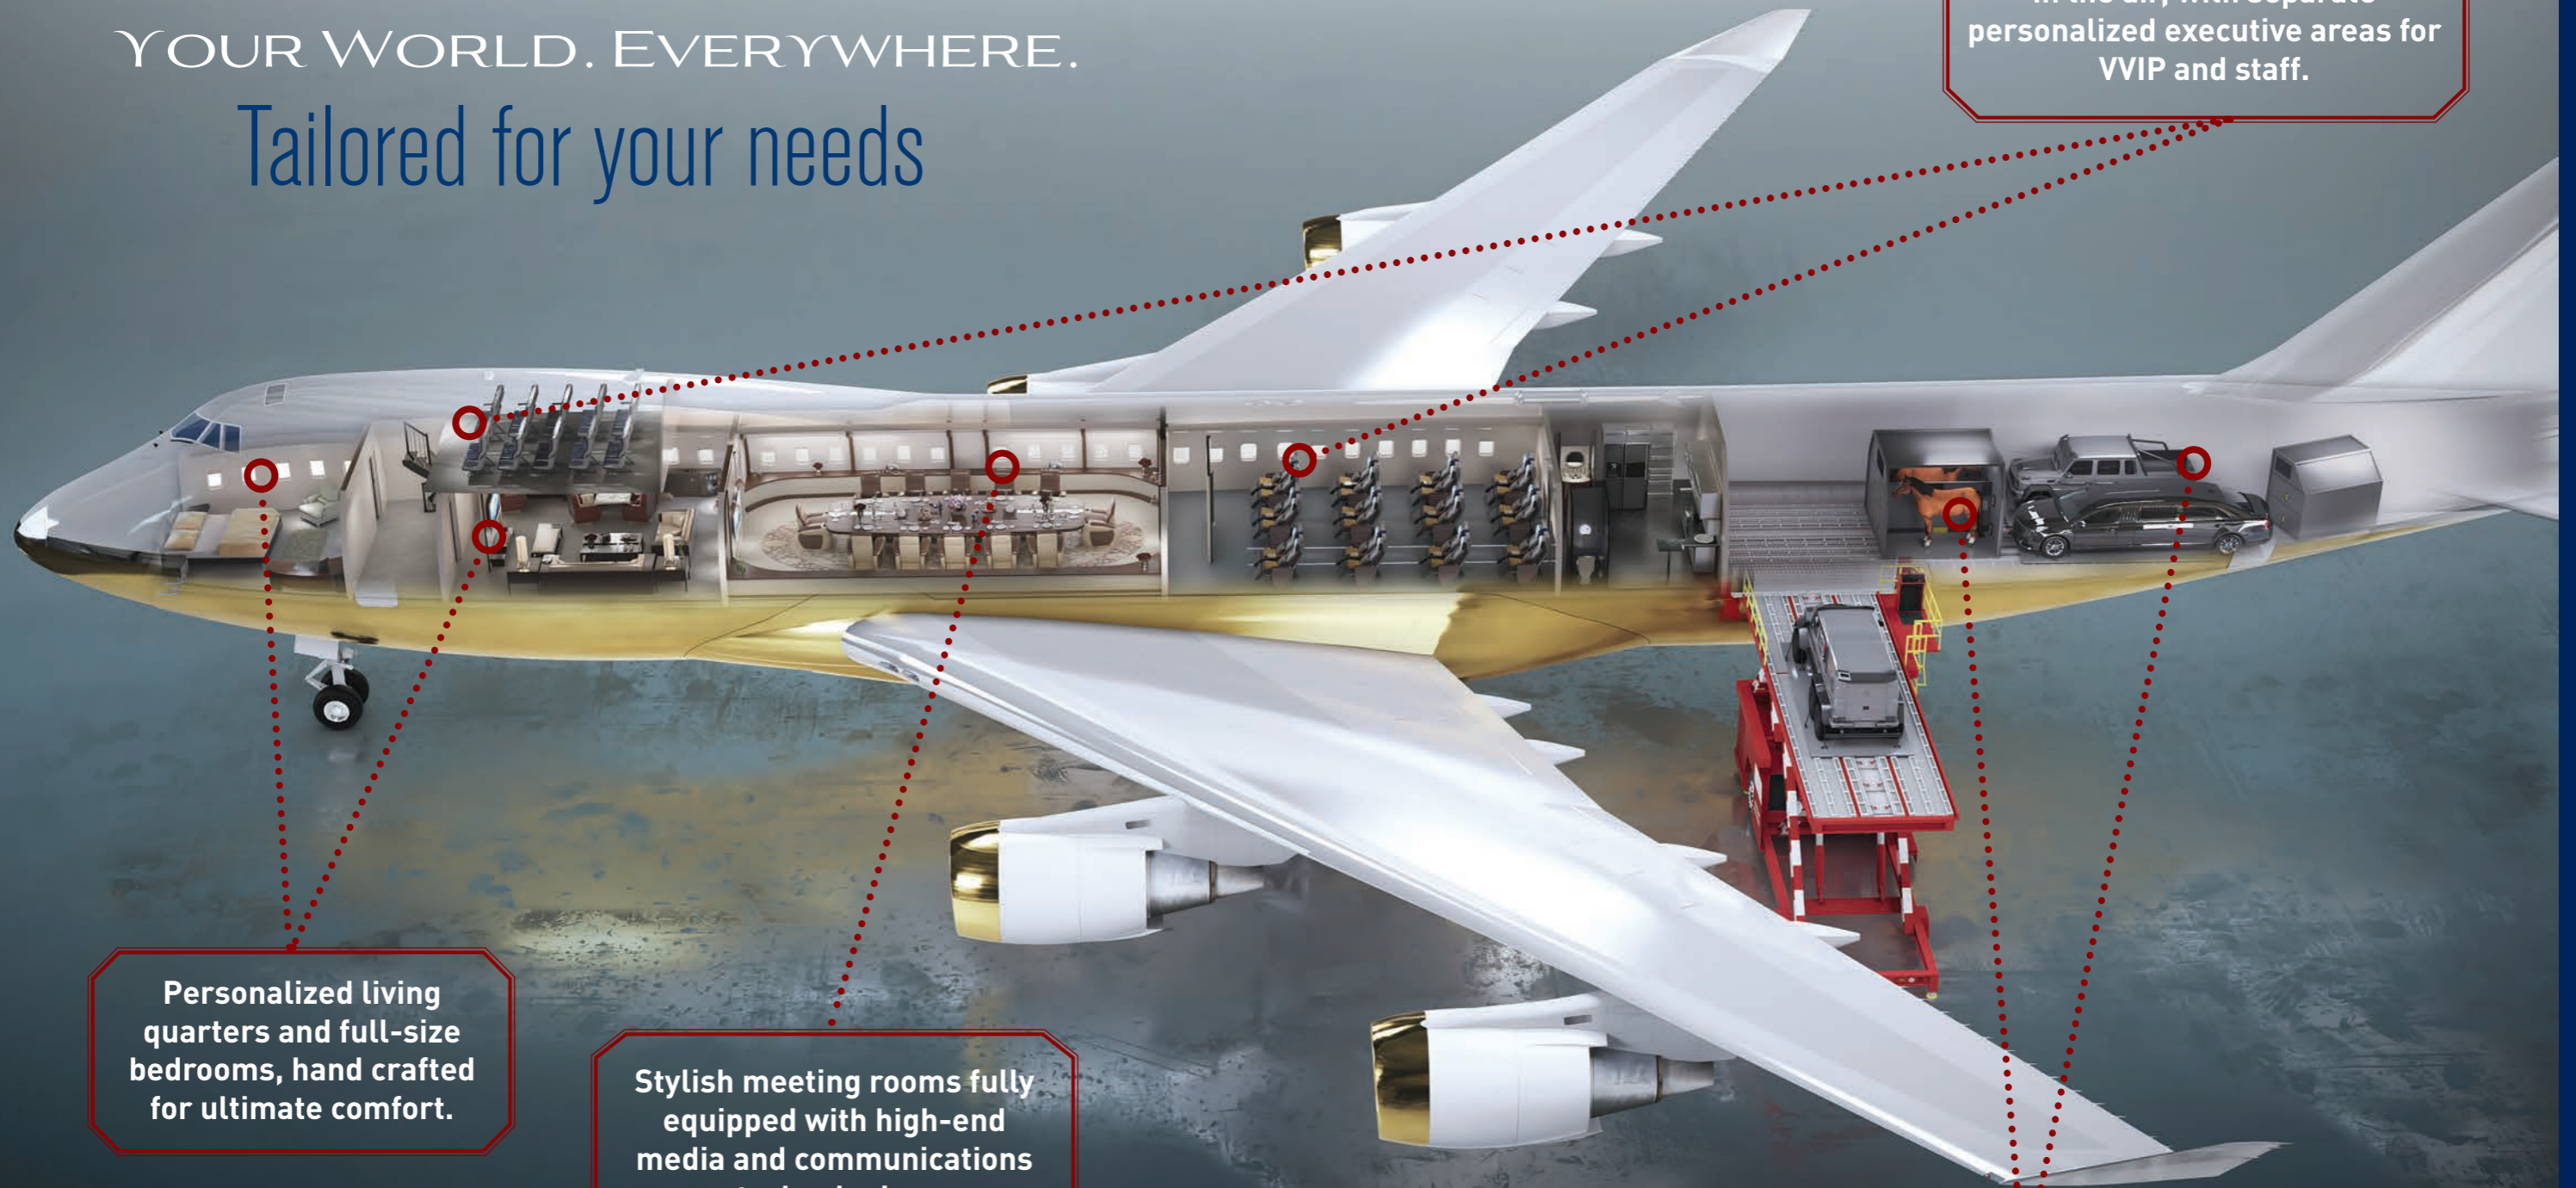

YOUR WORLD. EVERYWHERE.

Tailored for your needs

Make the most of your time in the air, with separate personalized executive areas for VVIP and staff.

Stylish meeting rooms fully equipped with high-end media and communications technologies.
Fully outfitted kitchen that rivals any restaurant on land.

Ample storage space for all the belongings of VVIP and entourage.
Huge storage space for those items you can't leave behind – your vintage sports car or your thoroughbred horse.

70 Years of Experience

Fully outfitted kitchen to rival any restaurant on the ground

Plenty of space for your entire entourage to accompany your flight in style

Decades of Airline Excellence

Whether you are on the ground or cruising at 30,000 feet, your comfort and satisfaction are our mission. LuxWing has nearly 70 years of experience in converting large-body aircraft to suit various uses - private, commercial or business. Our skilled teams of interior designers, craftsmen and engineers are experts at flexibility and attentiveness, and are always willing to go the extra mile to accommodate any request.

With over 500 aircraft in our résumé, and clients ranging from heads of states to presidents of giant corporations, your private plane is in good hands at LuxWing.

Your Second Home is Ready for Takeoff

LuxWing skillfully combines the interior cabin of large aircraft with all the comfort and luxury of your private home or headquarters. Our experience extends to balancing the ultimate interior comfort with highly advanced airframe technology, to provide you with a bespoke design that seamlessly combines your "terra firma" lifestyle with your airborne one.
